THE POWER OF THE TITAN MASTERS

Across the universe, ancient warriors the size of cities — the Titans — have returned. The reawakening of the Titans has also brought the return of Titan Masters, small Transformers robots who long ago journeyed across the universe inside the massive Titans. It is not yet clear why the Titans and Titan Masters have returned, only that their presence signals a seismic shift in the fate of the Autobots and Decepticons.

When the universe was still forming — when the Autobots and Decepticons as we know them had not yet come to exist — the Titans were created. The giant, sentient robots took the form of massive spaceships and fanned out across the galaxies on a mission from their creators. Their directive: discover the powers and mysteries that lurked beyond the boundaries of the known world. Titan Masters traveled with the Titans, a crew of caretakers charged with keeping the systems of the Titans running at peak performance. They also carried a much greater purpose.

Each Titan Master has a unique ability in their spark. Titan Masters can share that ability with other Transformers robots. They are the only known bots who can transfer powers to others.

Titan Masters were given this ability as a gift to share with other civilizations. Like the Titans that carried them, they were eventually lost to history, forgotten by all but the few who were tempted by the potential of their power and reckless enough to seek them. None succeeded.

Now, the Titans and the Titan Masters have returned, sending the battle between the Autobots and Deceptions into uncharted territory. Titan Masters share their abilities by becoming the head of another robot. With the right Titan Masters, a warrior could have limitless powers at their disposal — and the Decepticons have taken notice. The battle for the Titan Masters has begun!

RHYMES, WHEELIE!

VELOCITRON - THE SPEED PLANET'S
BIGGEST RACE OF THE YEAR IS IN ITS FINAL
LAP WHEN THE DECEPTICONS TRY TO CLAIM
THE RACE'S REAL PRIZE.

BLURR

Function: Data Transport
■ Titan Master Partner: Hyperfire

Blurr is the fastest bot in the galaxy. He talks fast and moves faster. Blurr is determined to win, whether he is facing off against other bots in a race or against the Decepticons in battle. He has won the top spot in every contest on Velocitron. When the Autobots need to send mission-critical messages they cannot risk being intercepted, Blurr carries them to their destination in what seems like a nanoklik. He can be impulsive, but his speed can get him out of trouble as quickly as he sometimes gets himself into it.

SCOURGE

Function: Tracker
■ Titan Master partner: Fracas

Scourge is a tracker who can locate and capture any target. The Decepticon is one of the universe's most powerful bots. He is merciless to his enemies and is known for fearsome fits of destruction. He has lost more targets to his own rage than to their ability to escape his pursuit. His mission on Velocitron: track and capture the Titan Master Hyperfire. His Titan Master partner, Fracas, can steal the powers of other bots, letting Scourge harness whatever ability suits his plans.

HYPERFIRE

■ Function: Titan Master
■ Power Boost: Super Speed

Hyperfire gives the bot he unites with the power of super speed. He is one of the few bots whose systems are fast enough to keep up with Blurr. The Decepticons want to harness his power boost for their own sinister purposes.

HARDHEAD

Function: Security
■ Titan Master Partner: Furos

Titan Master Furos might be the only bot who craves battle more than Hardhead. That makes him the perfect partner for the combat-driven Autobot. Furos gives Hardhead a regenerative healing power that instantly repairs armor and systems damage in battle.

SENTINEL PRIME

Function: Warrior
■ Titan Master Partner: Autobot Infinitus

One of the most powerful Autobot warriors who has ever lived, Sentinel Prime has the ability to impose his will on the universe, if he desires. The Titan Master Infinitus gives Sentinel Prime temporary invincibility by shielding him with a force field.

AUTOBOT WHEELIE

Function: Survival Tactics
■ Titan Master Partner: None Known

Wheelie may be small, but the Decepticons haven't managed to deactivate him yet. The Autobot has mastered the skills to survive any situation, on or off the battlefield. The other thing he does is rhyme. In fact, he does it all the time.

POWERMATER OPTIMUS PRIME

Function: Legendary Hero
■ Titan Master Partner: Autobot Apex

Optimus Prime will stand against any threat. Autobot Apex carries a portion of the spark and power of Optimus Prime, increasing the legendary warrior's already immense ability. With that boost to his systems, he charges into battle as Powermaster Optimus Prime!

CRASHBASH

■ Function: Titan Master
■ Power Boost: Berserker Rage

Blasters? Overrated. This one-bot wrecking crew smashes Autobots with thundering brute force. When Crashbash unites with another bot, he gives them the ability to harness unstoppable berserker rage.

HAND IT OVER,
ALPHA TRION.
WE HAVE YOU
SURROUNDED.

YEEHAAWWW

ASTROTRAIN
IN POSITION FOR CAPTURE.

YOUR FEEBLE ATTEMPT
AT AMBUSH WILL ONLY
HASTEN YOUR DEMISE,
DECEPTICONS.

THE RELIC YOU
SEEK WOULD ONLY BE
WASTED ON INFERIOR
BEINGS LIKE YOURSELVES!

NOT SO FAST, WOLFIRE.
YOU KNOW HIS WHOLE
"ANCIENT AND WISE, KNOWER OF ALL" THING INCLUDES
TACTICAL COMBAT, RIGHT?

YOU'RE SUPPOSED TO
SWING IN UNDETECTED,
APEFACE. THIS IS AN AMBUSH.

GRRRRRRR

EUKARIS - ALPHA TRION LOCATES A MYSTERIOUS ARTIFACT LINKED TO THE TITANS AND TITAN MASTERS. MINDWIPE AND HIS CREW ATTEMPT AN AMBUSH.

ALPHA TRION

Function: Sage
Titan Master Partner: Autobot Sovereign

Alpha Trion is an ancient warrior whose wisdom guides the Autobots. When Alpha Trion does pick up his sword, he attacks with the skill and ease of a true master. His Titan Master partner, Sovereign, carries the energy of Primus, giving any bot he unites with immeasurable power. Alpha Trion is one of the few bots who can harness that power without risking a systems overload. Searching for clues to the meaning behind the return of the Titans, he follows a trail of clues to Eukaris.

ASTROTRAIN

Function: Transport
Titan Master Partner: Darkmoon

Astrotrain uses his Triple Changer ability to keep the Autobots guessing. He can transport supplies and captives by land or air. Astrotrain and the Decepticon strike team detect the arrival of Alpha Trion and track his movements on Eukaris. They wait to ambush the Autobot in the jungle to steal the relic that he has located. The Titan Master Darkmoon gives Astrotrain an even greater advantage: he has a cloaking mode that makes the Triple Changer undetectable to Autobot sensors.

AUTOBOT SOVEREIGN

Function: Titan Master
Power Boost: Power of Primus

Sovereign has a rare and powerful spark infused with the energy of one of the universe's creators, Primus. Few robots are capable of wielding such power, and Sovereign only unites with those worthy of its infinite potential.

WOLFWIRE

Function: Tracker
Titan Master Partner: Monxo

A cruel and vicious Decepticon Wolfwire is. Talk in backward sentences he does. The Titan Master Monxo gives Wolfwire the power to rewind time in short bursts, but it drains the energy of both bots to dangerously low levels.

MONXO

Function: Titan Master
Power Boost: Rewind Time

Monxo is a fighter. His first (and only) strategy is to pummel enemies into submission. His ability to rewind time lets him fight first and sort things out later. His job is to undo the mess if anything on the mission goes wrong.

MINDWIPE

Function: Hypnotist
Titan Master Partner: Vorath

The Decepticon hypnotist Mindwipe and his Titan Master partner, Vorath, use mind control to carry out their sinister plans. Mindwipe casts his hypnotic spell, then Vorath takes full control over a bots' central processors, giving them a servant to do their bidding.

APEFACE

Function: Titan Master
Power Boost: Mass Shift

Apeface uses intimidation as a weapon. He's a loud, obnoxious bully who lives to strike fear in the sparks of other bots. When Apeface unites with another bot, he gives them the ability to mass shift and grow in size.

CLOBBER

Function: Titan Master
Power Boost: Super Strength

Clobber is a one-bot backup plan. He would rather handle things with his thundering fists than with a blaster or an Energon sword. When Clobber unites with another bot, he gives them super strength.

ARMOR!

AUTOBOT BLASTER

Function: Spy
Titan Master Partner: Twincast

Blaster is an expert at detecting enemy signals and encrypting Autobot transmissions. He can conduct communication operations from anywhere, and he usually goes where the action is. His favorite place to be is on the front line of any battle. To decode encrypted Decepticon transmissions, Blaster links with his Titan Master partner, Twincast. Twincast is a walking cipher: a bot with the most advanced cryptography programming in the universe. Blaster and his team discover the Decepticons who have infiltrated Caminus and roll out to stop them!

SKULLSMASHER

Function: Warrior
Titan Master Partner: Grax

Skullsmasher has an endless appetite for combat and for Autobots! In gator mode, he crushes enemies with his powerful jaws. He never leaves a trail, because he eats any bot who gets in his way. The only problem? The crunching gives away his location. Titan Master Grax makes Skullsmasher invisible by masking his energy signature. Together, they can infiltrate any Autobot stronghold. Their mission on Caminus: steal secret codes to the interplanetary transport system of space bridges.

AUTOBOT STRIPES

Function: Recon
Titan Master Partner: None Known

Stripes is a tactical recon expert who works with Autobot Blaster. He is trained in stealth tactics, but ferocious enough to fight his way out of trouble, if the Decepticons detect his energy signature.

AUTOBOT REWIND

Function: Data Archiving
Titan Master Partner: None Known

Rewind is part of an Autobot spy team led by Blaster. His vast databanks allow him to capture almost any datapoint his sensors pick up. He stores endless amounts of information captured on surveillance missions.

NIGHTBEAT

Function: Titan Master
Power Boost: Tracking

Nightbeat is a relentless detective who is not afraid to chase clues wherever they lead, even if it means facing enemies much bigger than him. When Nightbeat unites with another bot, he gives them exceptional tracking ability.

GRAX

Function: Titan Master
Power Boost: Stealth

Grax will stop at nothing to make a profit, including eliminating his rivals. Teaming up with Skullsmasher can get messy, but it does the job. Grax gives Skullsmasher a stealth mode, making him invisible to Autobots.

ROT-GUT

Function: Titan Master
Power Boost: Toxic Rust Cloud

Rot-Gut oozes evil...literally. His systems leak foul smelling fluids. He's also a terrible, horrible bully who happily destroys anything that stands in his way. When Rot-Gut unites with another bot, he gives them the ability to unleash a cloud of toxic rust.

GALVATRON

Function: Decepticon Mastermind
Titan Master Partner: Nucleon

The maniacal Galvatron will risk anything for conquest, including uniting with Nucleon. Nucleon is fueled by an unstable energy source. He brings increased strength and unpredictable powers, but can damage the bot he unites with beyond repair.

FORTRESS MAXIMUS

Function: Titan

■ Titan Master Partners: Cerebros and Emissary

Fortress Maximus is the ultimate secret weapon. He is the size of a city, a living metropolis that Transformers robots call home. He rarely takes his alternate mode, but when he does, he is a sheer force brought to life. His size alone makes him virtually unstoppable. He is big enough that his Titan Master has a Titan Master. He unites with Cerebros, a bot the size of an average Autobot. Cerebros unites with Emissary, who is the key to controlling the Titan. When the Decepticon forces attack, the ground shifts under their feet, and the city that was the battlefield beneath them becomes the enemy before them — the towering might of Fortress Maximus is unleashed!

SOUNDWAVE

Function: Spy

■ Titan Master Partner: Soundblaster

Soundwave is the most feared signal-stealer in the universe. He monitors and analyzes thousands of datapoints every nanoklik, then harvests that data for his own sinister uses. His Titan Master partner, Soundblaster, is a master of cyber infiltration. He drops a backdoor code into the systems of any bot he unites with, giving Soundwave a way in. With that access, Soundwave can raid any bot's processors — completely undetected — to steal a constant stream of information. His team of spies wreaks havoc through sabotage and infiltration. Soundwave leads the Decepticon attack on Cybertron.

CHROMEDOME

Function: Computer Programmer

■ Titan Master Partner: Autobot Stylor

Chromedome is always crunching data, looking for the smallest detail that will give the Autobots an advantage. Stylor gives Chromedome a rare tool in his coding arsenal: the power of mnemosurgery, the ability to edit another bot's memories.

HIGHBROW

Function: Electronic Warfare

■ Titan Master Partner: Xort

Highbrow would rather not be on the front lines, so he uses his vast intelligence to create weapons that do maximum damage from a maximum safe distance. The gravity disruptors of Xort give Highbrow the power to manipulate gravitational fields.

BRAWN

Function: Titan Master
Power Boost: Armor Enhancer

Brawn thinks he can defeat any Decepticon. That reasoning sometimes lands him in trouble that he has to fight his way out of, but that's how he likes it. When Brawn unites with another bot, he enhances their armor, making them virtually indestructible.

DECEPTICON RUMBLE

Function: Demolitions

■ Titan Master Partner: None Known

Rumble is part of a spy team led by Soundwave. The demolitions expert is a trash-talking brawler. He may be small, but he can bring down huge targets by causing earthquakes. Is he powerful enough to bring down a Titan?

LASERBEAK

Function: Interrogation

■ Titan Master Partner: None Known

Laserbeak is part of a Decepticon spy team led by Soundwave. He is a feared interrogator who persuades captured Autobots to spill their secrets by threatening them with his laser cannons.

DECEPTICON RAVAGE

Function: Sabotage

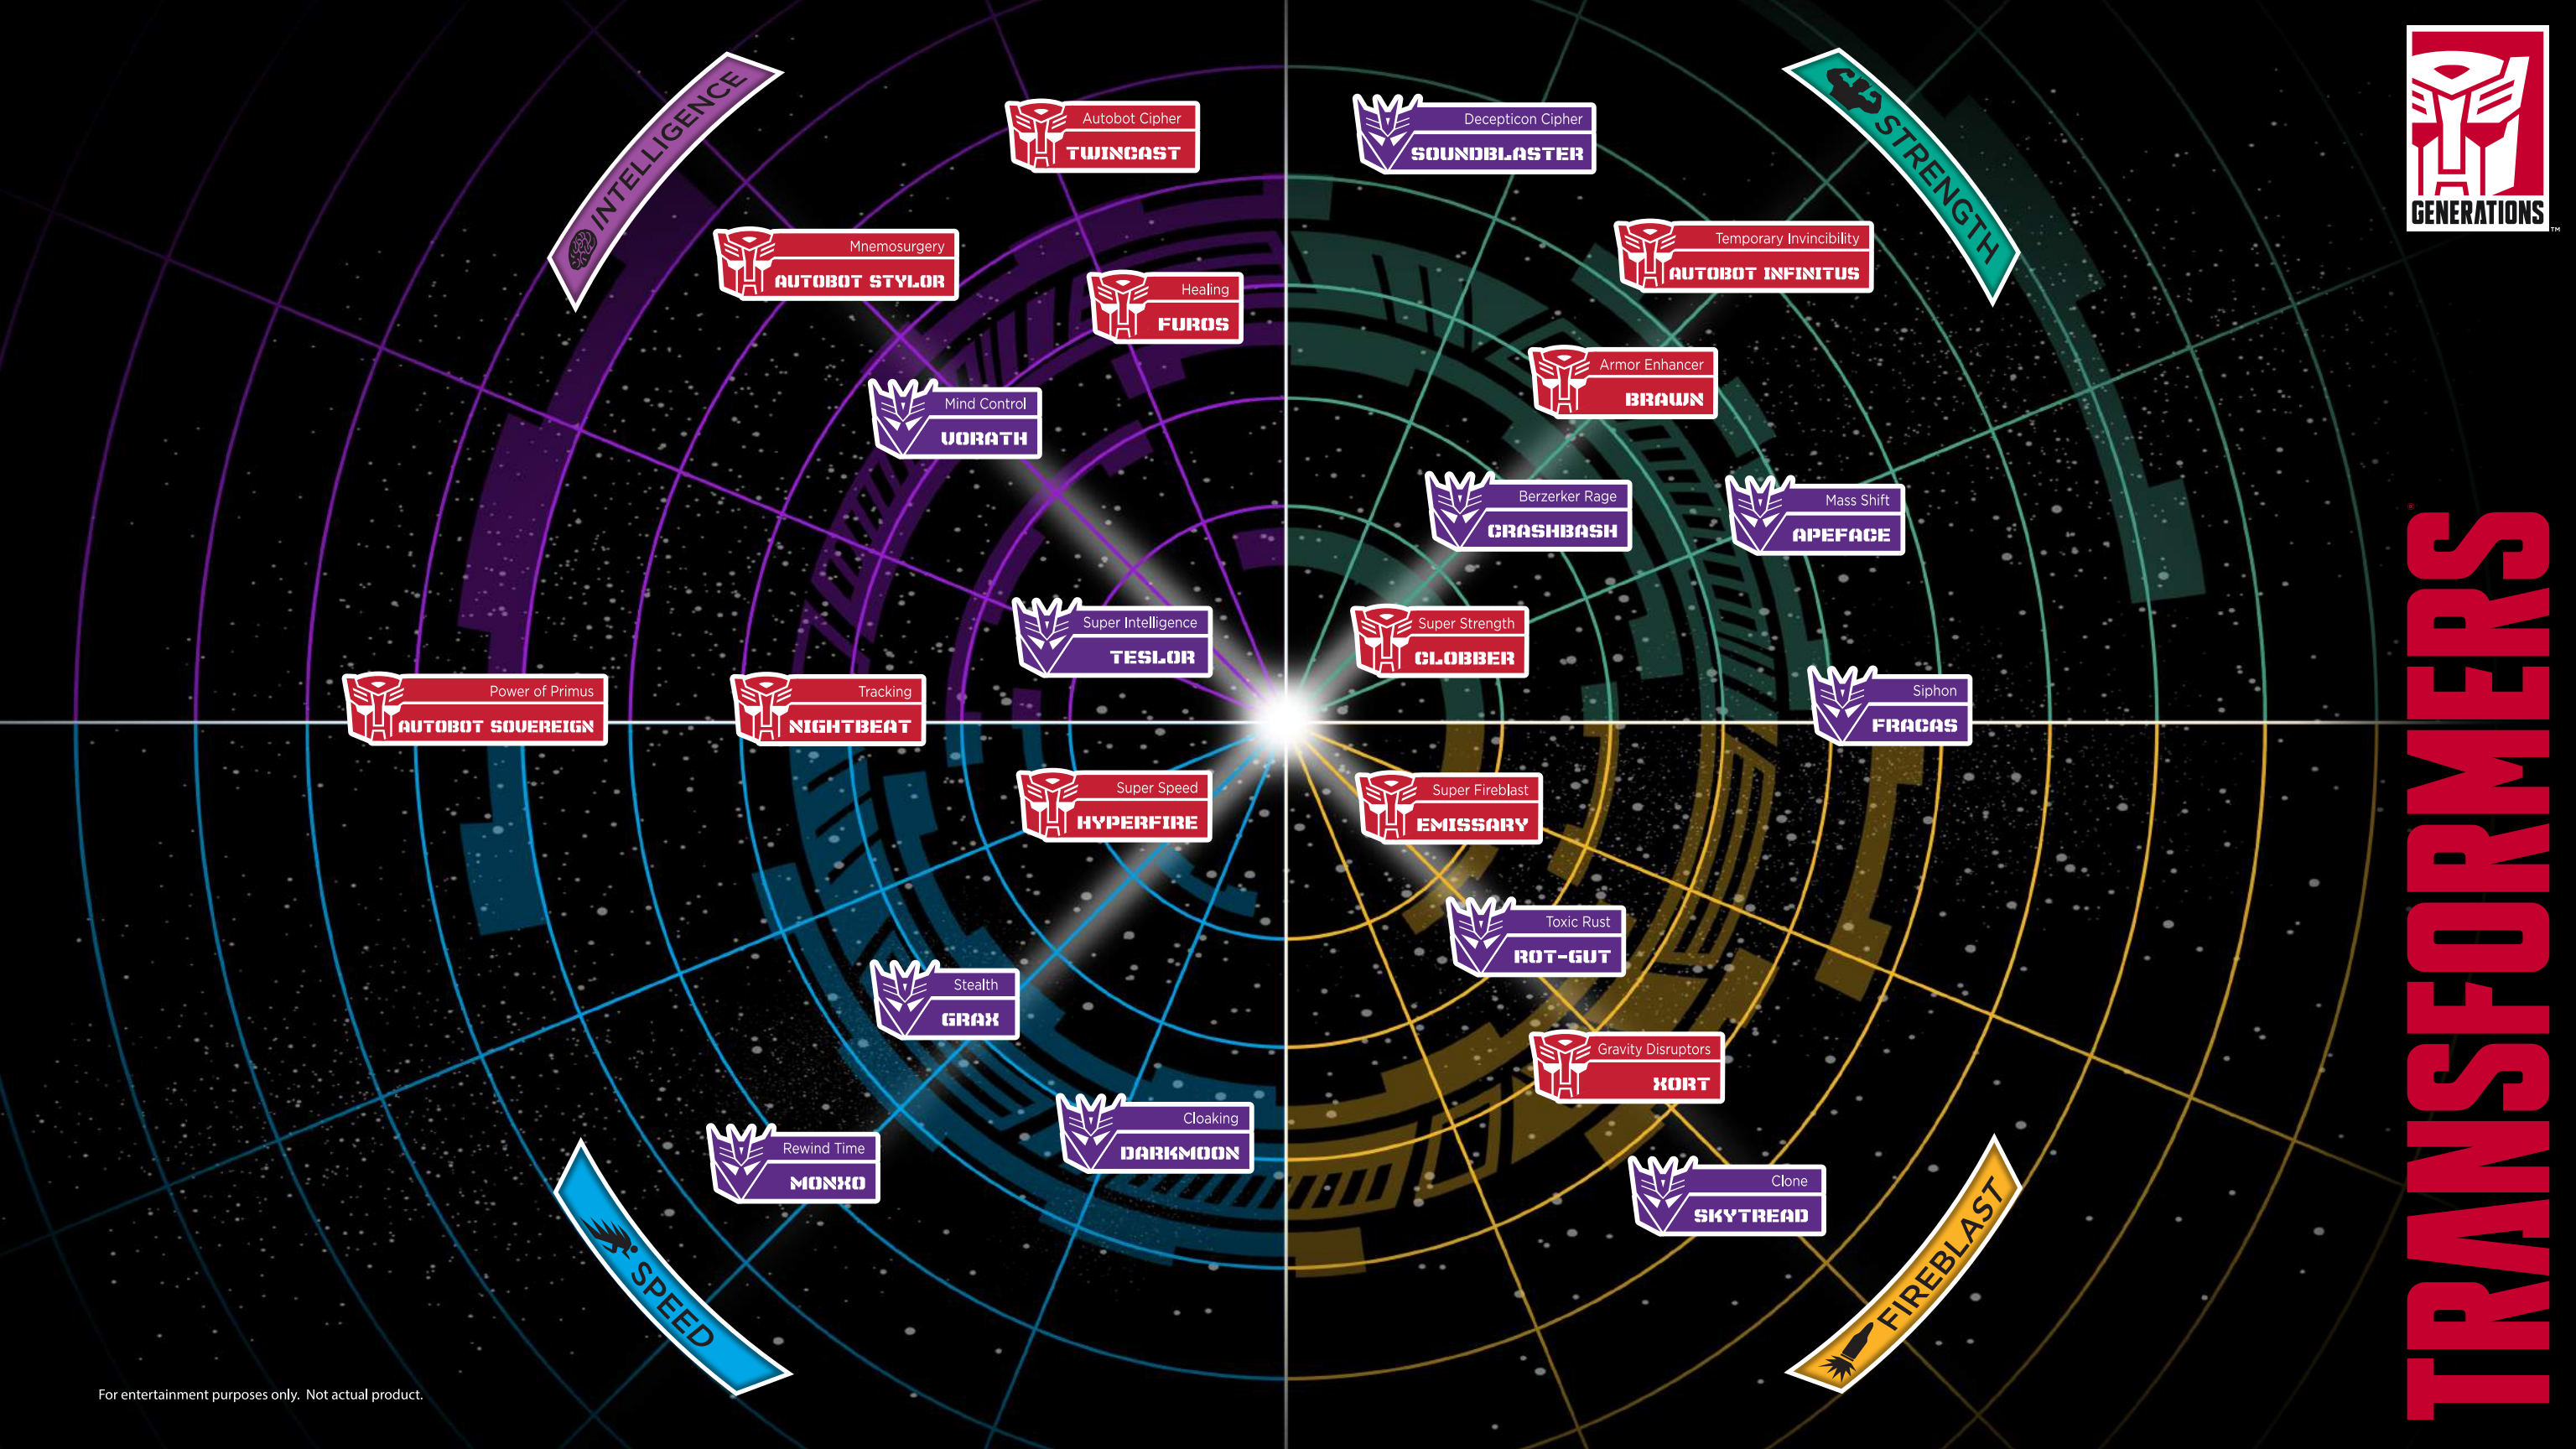

■ Titan Master Partner: None Known

A loyal operative who works with Soundwave, Ravage is ruthlessly effective at completing his missions. Hidden in the shadows, he silently tracks his prey and strikes with ferocious force when enemies least expect it.
