

CANDY LAND BINGO

(For 2, 3 or 4 Players)

Candyland Bingo is a delightful color-recognition treat for your children. It is composed of two different games with different objectives. In Game #1, players try to be the first to place four Gingerbread Men in a row. In Game #2, players try to completely fill the entire board with Gingerbread Men.

CONTENTS:

Spinner
64 Gingerbread Men (16 each of 4 colors)
4 Candyland Bingo Boards
64 Plastic Stands

TO SET UP:

Place the colored Gingerbread Men into the matching colored stands. Set the spinner and the 64 Gingerbread Men between the players. Each player takes 1 Candyland Bingo board.

GAME #1

OBJECT:

To be the first player to place 4 Gingerbread Men on 4 circles in a row, in any direction. (See Figure.)

TO PLAY:

1. Youngest player goes first, followed clockwise by the other players.
2. In turn, each player spins the spinner, then places a Gingerbread Man of that color on one of the matching colored circles on his/her board.
3. When a player spins a color that cannot be used (because the matching colored circles have all been filled on his/her board), that player must wait for another turn to spin the spinner again.

VERTICAL

DIAGONAL

HORIZONTAL

TO WIN:

The first player to fill all of the circles in a row, in any direction, wins the game.

GAME #2

OBJECT:

Be the first player to fill the Candyland Bingo board by placing Gingerbread Men on all 16 matching colored spaces.

TO PLAY:

1. Youngest player goes first, followed clockwise by the other players.
2. In turn, each player spins the spinner, then places a Gingerbread Man of that color on one of the matching colored circles on his/her board.
3. When a player spins a color that cannot be used (because the matching colored circles have all been filled), that player must wait for another turn to spin the spinner again.

TO WIN:

The first player to fill all the circles on his/her board with matching Gingerbread Men wins the game.
