

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR

This is a simple game which may be played by the youngest member of the family, and its moral tone will commend itself to all those who desire to place in the hands of their children a game teaching the good results sure to follow an upright life.

Each player take one piece.

The one to play first spins the indicator and, beginning at the upper left hand corner of the board, moves his piece along the track as many spaces as the indicator shows, after which players spin and move in turn.

If there are any directions upon the space upon which the player's piece stops, he must follow those directions, which will either advance or put back his piece a number of spaces.

The order of the numbers on the squares shows the direction the player moves. The player first reaching "Honest, Honored and Upright Citizen," WINS THE GAME.
