

ZOO BABY CHIMP

Hey! Babies aren't supposed to swing by one arm. But this baby can because he's a chimpanzee, and that's what baby chimps do.

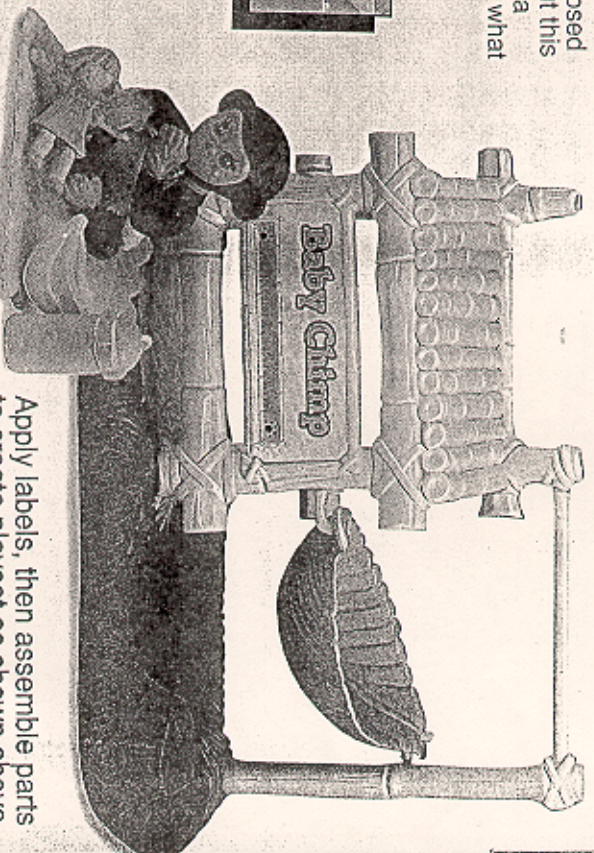

Baby chimp needs you to feed him. To fill his bottle just squeeze and release the bottle underwater.

Uh, oh. Is it time to change that diaper again? What would this cute little baby do without you to take care of him? Hurry! Baby's really hungry!

Like all babies, this little chimp likes to hold his baby doll close when he's ready to take a nap. Shh! Go to sleep, Baby Chimp.

Apply labels, then assemble parts to create playset as shown above.
