

Pinkie

Whenever Pinkie Pie feels super-duper strongly about something, she makes a Pinkie Promise. That means she will do whatever she promised when she said, "Cross my heart, hope to fly, stick a cupcake in my eye!" Have you ever made a promise to a friend or family member? Write about it here.

A sheet of lined paper with 15 horizontal lines. The paper has a decorative border on the right side consisting of a repeating pattern of heart, star, apple, and flower icons. In the bottom right corner, there is an illustration of three balloons with strings.
